On November 4, over 200 guests attended The Darling Home for Kids spanish-themed fundraiser at Liberty Grand. The Darling Home for Kids is an organization that provides support to families with children dependent on technology or medically fragile. The evening raised a total of $110,000 with $10,000 from the The Music for the Darlings raffle which supports the music therapy program. Special guests included Jane Seymour who is in town promoting her art exhibit which is currently on display at Art Trax gallery in Mississauga until November 19.
